

Enabling skills for ministry and mission

An online certificate

Are you in a role where you need to mobilise people but don't manage them?

Are you new to a role and want to develop your approach?

Are you committed to working with people to achieve their purposes?

This new one-year part-time online course will enable you to develop your role through a mix of intensive feedback, reading and reflection. The course will enable you to

- Develop your approach through skilled and intensive feedback
- Improve your ability to read situations theologically
- Increase your confidence in understanding the systems, power relations and culture in your context.

The course runs from January 2023 to November 2023.
