

RSCM ANNUAL LECTURE 2024

THE LIMITLESS RESOURCES OF LOCAL CHURCH MUSIC

An Evening with John Bell

Are you worried about the future of local church music?

There can be a tendency to worry about resources, especially in churches without a regular musician and/or choir, where few people can read music or where the congregation is getting older.

John Bell will challenge negativity and pessimism by drawing on real life examples from the Iona Community, of which he is a member, as well as many local churches, to show how you can move from scarcity to surfeit.
